(c) The information called for is voluminous. The date can be accessed in the latest issue of Foreign Trade Statistics of India (November 1993) brought out by Directorate General of Commercial Intelligence and Statistics, Calcutta. The publication is available in the Lok Sabha Library.

(d) In order to increase exports, Government have taken major steps for liberalisation of trade which include promotion of export linked imports, reduction of import-licensing, strengthening of export incentives removal of procedural irritants through simplification of policy and procedures and pruning of negative list of exports. In the Budget for 1994-95 these measures have been further re-inforced by introduction of convertibility of rupee on the current account, reduction in customs and excise duties and rationalisation of their structure. Also exporters have been allowed to retain a higher percentage (from 15% to 20%) of their foreign exchange earnings to enable them to avoid conversion cost for making payments for imports. In the case of 100% export oriented units and units in Export Processing Zones, Electronic Hardware Technology Parks and Software Technology Parks, the limit of retention of foreign exchange earnings has been enhanced to 50%.

Difficulties faced by Indian Businessmen in Moscow

1893. SHRI SHIV PRATAP MISHRA : Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state :

(a) wheher it is a fact that Indlan businessmen in Moscow are facing tremendous difficulties due to lack of shipping and banking facilities, fluctuation in the value of rouble and the high interest rate ; and

(b) if so, what are the details in this regard and what is the present position of trade between India and Russia ?

THE MINISTER OF COMMERCE (SHRI PRANAB MUKHERJEE) : (a) Difficulties due to inadequate shipping and banking facilities, fluctuation in the value of the Rouble, and high interest rates in Russia do constitute factors impeding the growth of trade and economic cooperation between India and Russia.

(b) The aforementioned factors are attributable to the far-reaching developments in recent years in the former USSR/ Russia. Efforts are afoot to contain the situation. India-Russia trade is already showing clear signs of revival. The latest available present position of India's trade with Russia is as below :—

(Value in Rs. crores)

	Exports	Imports	Total
1993-94 (Apr.—Nov.)	1113.26	481.59	1594.85
